Mastering Influence — 90 Minute Keynote

The ability to influence another human being has always been one of the key factors of success in every occupation. You will learn how to integrate proven psychological tools that will help you better understand, influence, persuade and reward others to ultimately achieve your organization's most ambitious goals and objectives. This interactive keynote session teaches the secrets of creating rapport, using the power of language, understanding the unconscious behaviors of your clients and employees and learning new natural and powerful negotiation skills.

So if getting people to say "yes" is imperative to your success, the proven strategies of this unusual and highly effective approach to influence are essential for you to know.

Joy Pecchia is an HPSS Global Speaker, Strategic Business Consultant and Certified Leadership Coach for corporate and individual clients, and works with leaders worldwide for the Anthony Robbins Companies.

For over 20 years, Joy has focused on team development and leadership while managing various live events and video production companies. Joy is also a Certified Master NLP Practitioner, Hypnotherapist, Healing Touch Practitioner and Reiki Master Teacher.
